

On May 22nd, Joplin MO was devastated by a deadly tornado. Affected residents can apply for disaster assistance through the Federal Emergency Management Agency. St. Louis County residents are eligible for assistance, which may include grants for temporary housing and home repairs, property losses, and other programs to help households recover.